

The chart below shows how certifications issued prior to 2012 are now credited

Before 2012	On 01/01 2012	After 01/01/2012
Introductory Fire Fighting	Became →	Module 1 – Firefighter I (Intro) training completion
Basic Firefighter	Became →	Module 2 – Firefighter I (Basic) training completion
Basic Accredited Firefighter	Became →	Basic Accredited Firefighter (no new ones issued)
Intermediate Firefighter	Became →	Module 3 – Firefighter I training completion
Intermediate Accredited Firefighter	Became →	Firefighter I certification
Advanced Firefighter	Became →	Module 4 – Firefighter II (Advanced) training completion
Advanced Accredited Firefighter	Became →	Firefighter II certification

Individuals moving into the SFFMA Certification Program can receive credit as follows:

Documentation		Covers in Program
TCFP Basic Firefighter (after 1993)	Credits →	Module 1-4 objectives (must file applications)
TCFP Basic Academy Completion	Credits →	Module 1-4 objectives (must file applications and test)
NFPA with IFSAC/Pro-Board	Credits →	Module 1-4 objectives (must file applications)
NFPA without IFSAC/Pro-Board	Credits →	Module 1-4 objectives (must file applications and test)